

Study programmes: Bachelor studies - Informatics
Course name: RK21 - Professional Course 21
Lecturers: Lecturers at Department of computer Science
Status: Optional
ECTS: 2
Attendance prerequisites: To be defined for specific courses.
Course aims: Acquiring practical knowledge in one of the current areas of computer application.
Course outcome: After completion of the course, the student mastered the basic knowledge in the area covered by the course.
Course content: The course is organized in cooperation with other scientific and business subjects (primarily software companies) and with immediate supervision by the teachers of the Department of Computer Science.
Literature: Appropriate scientific and professional literature.
Number of hours: 2	Lectures: -	Tutorials: 2	Laboratory: -	Research: -
Teaching and learning methods: Group, individual and practical.
Assessment (maximal 100 points)
Course assignments	points	Final exam		points
Lectures	-	Written exam		50
Exercises / Tutorials	-	Oral exam		-
Colloquia	50	Written-oral exam		-
Essay / Project	-			